Conference Champions Collide

The 73rd Orange Bowl Classic was a contest between first-time participants, Wake Forest and Louisville.

The Cardinals averaged 39 points and ranked second in the nation in total offense this season, but fell behind 13-10 in the final period before their offense went into high gear. Touchdown drives of 81 and 71 yards on consecutive possessions sealed their first win in a major bowl since the 1991 Fiesta Bowl.

Running back Anthony Allen scored two touchdowns, one on a trick play, and quarterback Brian Brohm threw for 311 yards to lead Louisville past Wake Forest 24-13.

The Demon Deacons trailed 10-3 at half-time but scored on their first possession of the third period when wide receiver Nate Morton slipped behind the Louisville secondary to catch a 30-yard TD pass from Ryan Skinner.

Sam Swank made a 36-yarder to cap a 61-yard drive and put the Demon Deacons ahead 13-10 early in the fourth quarter. The Cardinals responded with an eight-play drive capped by Allen's 1-yard plunge for a 17-13 lead with 12:31 to go. They quickly forced a punt, and mounted a 10-play drive that ended with Brock Bolen's 18-yard scoring run.

Brohm finished 24-for-34 and was chosen the game's most valuable player. Wake Forest's Riley Skinner went 21-for-33 for 271 yards with one touchdown and one interception. No. 5 Louisville finished 12-1 to ensure the highest final ranking in school history. The No. 15 Demon Deacons slipped to 11-3, still their best season.

Dream Season Continues for Kansas

In a classic match up between the nation's second ranked scoring defense in the Virginia Tech Hokies (15.5 ppg) against the nation's second ranked scoring offense in the Kansas Jayhawks (44.3 ppg), something had to give in the 2008 FedEx Orange Bowl.

For much of the night, Virginia Tech stymied Kansas' offense but it was the Jayhawk defense that came up big with three interceptions and beat the Hokies 24-21 to cap one of the finest seasons in school history.

The takeaways led to 17 Kansas points, including game MOP Aqib Talib's 60-yard return for the game's first score.

This was the first major bowl for the Jayhawks since the 1969 Orange Bowl, and they made a big splash at the start, racing to a 17-0 lead after 23 minutes.

Virginia Tech closed the deficit to 17-14 before Sean Glennon was intercepted by Justin Thornton, whose 30-yard return gave Kansas the ball at the 2 with 11 minutes left. Kansas quarterback Todd Reesing scored on the next play.

Sparking the Tech comeback was Justin Harper's 84-yard punt return after taking a lateral on a reverse from Eddie Royal, who fielded the kick.

Kansas (12-1), perhaps the biggest surprise in college football during the season, won in its first Bowl Championship Series game to set a team record for victories. The previous year, the Jayhawks went 6-6. The Hokies would finish the year 11-3.

Tech Earns First BCS Win

The opening moments were filled with just about every problem Virginia Tech coach Frank Beamer feared his team would have against Cincinnati. It was merely a blip.

MOP Darren Evans had 28 carries for 153 yards and a touchdown, quarterback Tyrod Taylor rushed for another score and No. 21 Virginia Tech beat No. 12 Cincinnati 20-7 in the FedEx Orange Bowl, joining Southern California and Texas as the only schools to win 10 games in each of the past five seasons.

The Hokies forced Cincinnati quarterback Tony Pike into a season-high four interceptions. Pike - who wasn't even on Cincinnati's depth chart at the start of the season before blossoming into an all-Big East quarterback - threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but had his night marred mightily by the picks and getting stopped on a fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter.

The Hokies held Cincinnati to 137 yards, rendered the Bearcats' running game nonexistent (eight carries, 11 yards) over the remainder of the half, and battled their way to a 10-7 lead by intermission.

The Hokies became the first ACC team to win a BCS game since Florida State which beat Virginia Tech, then a Big East member, for the national championship to close the 1999 season.

Gators Ride Tebow, Defense to Title

In a game that featured two of the country's most dynamic offenses and two Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks, it was the defensive grudge match between the second ranked Florida Gators and top-ranked Oklahoma Sooners that dominated the 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship.

The high-scoring shootout between Heisman Trophy winners Tim Tebow and Sam Bradford never materialized.

Tebow, however, shook off a career-high two interceptions to rescue the Gators. He drove them to the clinching score -- he took two hard steps toward the line, jumped and zipped a 4-yard touchdown pass to David Nelson with 3:07 left to make it 24-14.

Percy Harvin returned from an ankle injury and dashed for 122 yards on only nine carries for the Gators. His 52-yard gallop set up Jonathan Phillips' 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter for a 17-14 lead.

It was Florida's third national title overall, the third straight for a team from the Southeastern Conference, and it was the Sooners' fifth straight loss in a BCS game. Oklahoma set a modern record for scoring with 702 points this season and put up at least 60 points in each of its last five games, yet never found its rhythm.
